Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

Tulsa Girls Art School's mission: Through art, Tulsa girls overcome barriers and discover life-changing purpose, power and possibility!

The Art School began in 2007 with the original purpose of providing an after-school program in a safe, encouraging and instructive environment for underprivileged girls to develop their artistic ability and to eventually teach them the basics of business and money. The organization has evolved and grown, and although the original purpose remains and art is still the medium, the program has expanded to serve the whole girl as expressed by its mission statement. Some students may become successful artists and some will prosper in other areas as the program teaches critical thinking, artistic and social skills, discipline and financial management to help them succeed in life.

The school welcomes girls from third grade through twelfth grade, allowing some students to have nearly ten years of programming and consistent support. All transportation, supplies, space, instruction and snacks are provided free of charge.

In addition to local outings, the older students take a summer trip where they attend galleries, museums, and fine arts education programs in many different cities. For some, it is the first time to travel outside their neighborhood and new worlds and aspirations are opened to them.

Students prepare art exhibits of their work for the public and receive a portion of their art sale proceeds which is maintained in micro-savings accounts for each.

These exhibits help teach teamwork, organization, finances and social skills, in addition to art instruction.

The Board of Directors strategic planning session resulted in the development of a pilot program to provide art instruction to younger girls at specific schools that began in 2019. With this effort the program expanded its reach to serve more girls.

The schools served are: Booker T. Washington, Will Rogers, Tulsa School of Arts and Sciences, Edison, Webster, Carver, Sequoya and Emerson.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

Tulsa Girls Art School's Form 990 is prepared by an independent accounting firm and based on independently audited financial statements. The Treasurer or President of the Board reviews the Form 990 in detail and compares it to the audited financials. After being presented to the Finance Committee for review and approval, the Form 990 is presented to the full Board for approval.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

Conflict of interest forms, accompanied by explanation, are signed by all Board members. Transactions with officers, board members and staff are deliberately avoided. Should any potential conflict of interest arise, the affected party would be required to refrain from any deliberation or possible vote with regard to any matter affected by the relationship.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO & Top Management

The Organization's Board obtains third party compensation data for each key role within the Organization. The finance committee reviews this data in conjunction with their analysis of potential compensation changes as a part of the annual budget process.
